

HALLOWEEN

HISTORIC DISTRICT

Saturday, October 19th, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.
Special Programming

Independence Visitor Center- START HERE! Stop by the Independence Visitor Center to pick up your trick-or-treat bag, and paint your pumpkin for Halloween from 11-1.

 599 Market St.

- African American Museum of Philadelphia- Free admission at AAMP from 11-1 for Halloween in the Historic District.
 - 701 Arch St.
- Art Star- Oktoberfest Craft Market - Shop with 20 local artists and craft-makers inside the Visitor Center and outside in Liberty Garden.
 - 599 Market St.
- Betsy Ross House- Visitors will meet Margaret Woodby, demonstrating biscuit (cookie) making; Julia Stockton Rush, who talks about colonial medicine; and Sarah Bass Allen will be teaching quill pen writing.
 - 239 Arch St.
- Carpenters' Hall Courtyard- Colonial photo opportunity.
 - 320 Chestnut St.
- Elfreth's Alley Museum- Edgar Allan Poe's Philadelphia stories from 2 - 4 p.m.
 - 124 Elfreth's Alley
- Franklin Court- Mask making
 - Market Street between 3rd & 4th.
- Franklin Square- Bring your child to pick a pumpkin out of Franklin Square's Pumpkin Patch, 11 am- 1 pm! Franklin Square will provide supplies to decorate it so that they can take it home and be ready for Halloween.
 - 200 N. 6th Street
- Independence Seaport Museum- Join us in the Seaport Boat Shop from 11 AM - 1 PM and carve your own Jack-o- Lantern decoration for the season! All ages are welcomed. Included with admission.
 - 211 Christopher Columbus Blvd.
- Kick Axe Throwing- Join Kick Axe Throwing for some spooky axe throwing and pumpkin splitting.
 - 232 Market Street
- Ministry of Awe- Come for a treat and get tricked. You will enter MoA's lair in the basement of an old sugar factory, and this means the candy has been around a long time...prepare for a little haunt, all ages welcome.
 - 225 Church Street
- Signers Garden- Take part in fun 18th century games.
 - 5th and Chestnut St.
- Science History Institute- Food science and school lunch themed programming as well as historic candy recipes.
 - 315 Chestnut St.

SCAN FOR MORE INFO!

HALLOWEEN IN THE

HISTORIC DISTRICT

Trick-or-Treat Locations

KEY

-  Independence National Historical Park (INHP)
-  Halloween in The Historic District Stops
-  Places to visit
-  Walkways
-  Parking
-  Currency exchange
-  ATM
-  Franklin Square Parking
-  Restrooms
-  PHLASH Stop